

REJOICING BY RED HOUSE FOLKS

Change In Roads, New Bridge
and School House Assured
—Work Starts Soon

That the improvements in the vicinity of Red House, including the changing of two public highways, the construction of a bridge across Otter creek and the building a new school house, is assured, and that work will be started on the improvements which will be realized during the early fall, a dream of years, and something some of the older residents have aspired to for a long time, has been assured. Actual work will be started by August 1, it is believed, and the thousands traversing this much-used highway will enjoy the improvement yet this year.

The improvement means the elimination of two of the most dangerous grade crossings in this section of Kentucky, and the improvement of one of the greatest used public roads hereabouts. The road is traversed by thousands of tourists, is one of the main ones leading to and from Richmond, and is known far and near. The school house, a county enterprise, in one sense of the word, has been contemplated for some time and this building has also been assured.

The road improvement work, however, results from the persistent work upon the part of a number of residents, County Engineer J. G. Baxter and others, and the hearty cooperation of the L. & N. railway has been highly instrumental in bringing the plans to a successful conclusion. The matter of details, requiring court proceedings, in the changing of the course of a public highway, will be taken up immediately and the first attention of the court will be called very soon. Attorney A. R. Burnam, of this city, has been secured to assist with the legal work and this, together with the service of County Attorney Jackson, will admit of no delay along this line. The contract plans will not be a hindrance and since the right of way has practically been secured and the necessary funds for carrying out the work, there is no reason why one should take a pessimistic view of the situation. In fact, the residents of Red House are jubilant, and most of them, who have made contributions, are ready to assist with the work in any way possible.

It is said that this improvement will be more far-reaching than anything in the way of a highway improvement that could be made in Madison county. The work of constructing the bridge as well as that of building the road, will be started almost simultaneously, it is said, and the residents of the vicinity who have been clamoring for a new school house are prepared for their part of the work along this line, and they state that in the near future Red House will be a metropolitan center. There have been many accidents at the various railroad crossings in that vicinity, some of them fatal, and it was with the intention to do away with this that the railway joined with the county officers and others in the determined decision to make the vicinity better for road traffic.

Booze As Fertilizer

Frederickton, New Brunswick, June 14—Twelve tons of whisky and other "wet goods" were seized by the authorities here today. The inspector said the liquor had been shipped out of Montreal as "fertilizer" and was closely following a popular route to New England for contraband shipments.

Cut This Out and Take it With You
A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion.

OHIO WANTS COX AGAINST HARDING

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., June 15—Now that an Ohioan has been chosen as the standard bearer of the republicans, Ohio democrats are redoubling their efforts to obtain another honor for the Buckeye State by having Governor Cox selected by the San Francisco convention as the democratic nominee. Former Governor Jas. Campbell is preparing a circular letter to all democrats, setting forth why Cox should be nominated.

"Cox can carry Ohio; what other candidate can match this certainty with even a probability," the letter asks.

THE COLONEL SAYS SOMETHING HIMSELF

(By Associated Press)
Cincinnati, June 15—Colonel William Cooper Proctor, manager of General Wood's unsuccessful campaign for the republican nomination for president, on arrival home today from Chicago, sent a telegram to Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, saying his statement given out yesterday relative to Wood's support, was wholly false and given out with malicious disregard for truth. Butler, in a statement, was quoted as saying stock gamblers in oil and mining promoters, munition makers and other like persons sought to buy for Wood the presidential nomination.

HARDING WON'T QUIT SENATE SEAT

Washington, June 15—Senator Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for the presidency, will not resign his seat in the Senate. To do so would endanger the narrow margin of control now held by his party in the Upper House.

While the Senator himself would make no statement relative to his course, an authority close to the Senator scoffed at the possibility of his resignation as Senator under the circumstances. "Senator Harding resign and permit Gov. Cox to name a democrat to fill the vacancy? Hardly!" was the remark.

"I had a very personal message from Wm. Jennings Bryan," said Senator Harding today. "He assured me we had no common viewpoint politically."

Harding May Make "Porch" Race

Chicago, June 15—Departing members of the Republican National Convention and other leaders who participated prominently in the convention were interested in discussion of plans for the campaign.

Paramount was a question whether Senator Harding, the presidential nominee, should make a tour of the country or remain at his home in Marion, O., and there greet the visiting delegations, as the late Wm. McKinley did at Canton, O., during his campaign in 1896.

No effort will be made to determine for the Senator what shall be done by him. The speculation today was confined to his close friends and to others who are eager to contribute whatever they can toward his election.

It is apparent that many of these men have in their mind's eye the picture of the disastrous tour of Charles Evans Hughes, republican nominee, made thru the west in 1915, prior to the actual opening of the campaign.

Republican leaders generally are still inclined to assert that Hughes helped to spike his own guns four years ago by touring the western country under the direction of men who entirely failed to understand the spirit of that section.

MADISON COUNTY AT ROAD CONVENTION

Engineer Baxter and County Judge Price Are In Attendance at Big Meeting

Tuesday morning at daylight, County Judge W. K. Price and County Road Engineer J. G. Baxter departed for Louisville to attend the annual convention of the Kentucky Highway Association, and they are taking their time in going, since they are making the trip in an auto for the express purpose of inspecting a number of roads in this and other counties. Many "patches" of road in Madison county will be investigated by them before reaching Louisville.

While there they will take great interest in the meeting, since some of the matters coming up at this, reputed to be the most important session in the history of the state, will deal directly with interests of Madison county. There is reported to be the greatest assemblage of road engineers, fiscal court judges, road builders and contractors ever assembled at Louisville. While an interesting and entertaining program has been arranged, there will be business galore and some of the most important events coming up in years will be dealt with. It is understood that according to the new laws there will be a new highway commission affected, and this is one of the matters of vital interest. There is claimed to be more or less confusion as a result of this, and the meeting today is for the purpose of enlightenment upon this matter, as well as others. It is expected that Joe Boggs, State Commissioner of Public Roads, who has accomplished so much within a very short time, will be present and take an active part in the convention. There will be plans for future work, the work of engineers in general and many other things taken up for the benefit of the highway work and workers of the state.

The convention opened Tuesday with a big street parade.

BLOODHOUNDS ARE GIVEN BIG WORKOUT

According to reports from Lexington, the bloodhounds of Capt. V. G. Mullikin have been getting an unusual workout during the past several days.

While there have been no warrants issued in Madison county nor any transfer of prisoners asked for from this county, the following is from the Lexington Leader:

After being trailed by Capt. V. G. Mullikin's bloodhounds, two small boys confessed to entering the home of H. P. Barclay, of Madison county, and taking jewelry valued at $200, and various trinkets, according to Capt. Mullikin, who returned to Lexington Sunday. The only clue to the thieves who entered the home was a foot print in a chair, from which the dogs got the scent and followed the trail straight to the home of the boys.

Capt. Mullikin went to Rogers Gap Sunday afternoon to investigate the robbery of W. C. Dickerson's store. His bloodhounds followed a trail to the railroad tracks, where it was lost. Officers believe the store was broken into by hoboes who caught a train at this point.

SUIT TO BLOCK TAX ON WHISKY

The case of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company in which it seeks to enjoin the State of Kentucky from collecting the 50-cent a gallon whisky tax levied by the 1920 legislature will be heard before three Federal Judges in Lexington, beginning Thursday morning at 9:30. Under the federal statutes, suit to enjoin a state must be heard by at least three judges and Judge A. M. J. Cochran has called Judge Arthur C. Dennison, of Michigan, and Judge Walter Evans, of Louisville, to sit with him in this case.

A distinguished array of counsel will be present, both for the state and the distilleries' company.

HERE'S WHERE NEW MOVEMENT WILL HELP

The attention of S. W. Norman, secretary of the Home Service of the Red Cross, has been called to the case of Russell T. Million, of Newby, a Madison county soldier, who has not communicated with the headquarters here, as was expected, and this is another demonstration of the worth of information bureau effected Saturday night. Mr. Norman will look after the returned soldier at once. Had the communication, which is dated last December, been forwarded to the Richmond office, whereabouts of the young man would have been known a long time ago and he would have been rendered any aid possible. This is the object of the new organization here. The examination of the case has already been held up almost seven months.

TO RESIST REDS IN PERSIA

London, June 15.—The Daily Express's Italian correspondent has cabled that Italy is sending troops to Persia to assist the British forces in resisting the Bolshevik invasion.

The three young men from Knox county, being held at the Madison county jail to await trial on a murder charge, are said to be model prisoners. They are charged with having robbed and killed a soldier. They all deny the charge. The trio was brought to Richmond, owing to the condition of the jail in Knox county.

FAMILY OF FIVE ATTENDING SCHOOL

There is a family of five, consisting of mother, two sons and two daughters, enrolled at Eastern Normal. They hail from Barbourville. Mrs. E. P. Gray, wife of one of the best Chautauqua entertainers, who is in the west, brought her children to the school, where they are taking the general courses, and she decided to accompany them and do some studying herself. The party arrived Monday and will be here during the summer term. Perhaps some of the "children," as she terms them, will remain later.

This is a record attendance, it is believed, for one family, although there are four sisters, the Misses Webb, of Floyd county, who have enrolled. All are school teachers, or will be in the future. They are well known in the vicinity of where they live as being among the most progressive to be found and are desirous of attending the summer school to get the benefits of the special studies.

STRAWBERRY CROP MUCH GREATER THAN EXPECTED

The summing up of the strawberry crop for the season in Madison county is being done, since the season is about closed, and it is believed that some interesting figures will be presented, the crop having been found to be more extensive than anticipated. There is a more scattering crop, it is said, more small patches than usual, showing that some individual farmers are enjoying berries and have taken to raising them.

GYM CONVERTED INTO SLEEPING ROOM

Record Breaking Enrollment of Teachers Who Are Now
Flocking To Richmond

The influx of school teachers, which was evident the last of the week, has increased to such proportions that the situation has become one never before coped with by the management of the Eastern Normal School. The opening of the summer school on Tuesday is the cause. While it was expected there would be a goodly number, it was not believed the list would be nearly as extensive as at present—and they are still coming in.

The matter of registering, usually the most important feature of the new arrival, has become a secondary consideration, since the first thing is to look out for quarters. The city has been scoured, and there are many pretty school misses late Monday night walking the streets for some time, until places were provided for them. In many instances, no accommodation could be secured with the result that the newcomers were forced to return to the school. It was decided to convert the gymnasium into sleeping quarters for the present, which was done.

Almost every incoming train brings an addition to the already big list, and it is estimated that more than 600 will be on the register before the close. The school, which continues for a period of six weeks, is a preparatory course, in a way, in order that the younger teachers be better prepared for the fall term of school. The training is highly beneficial, and will enable all who complete the course here to get a lifetime certificate for teaching. This is the coveted prize many are working for and there will be many to complete the course this year.

There is a decided increase in the male applicants, and especially of the middle age class. Heretofore, owing to the war, there have been but youths on the male list, but this situation is undergoing a rapid change, according to the management.

Business Manager Gentry stated today there was no ban on age and the other applicants were heartily welcomed.

The oldest male student is 66 years this year, while there is now enrolled a female student at the age of 62. This is gratifying to the management in more ways than one. They appreciate the idea of older people becoming interested in the work. If possible, provision will be made for all who come. The rush is expected to close Wednesday morning at least. However, the number already greatly exceeds expectations. The classes are the largest that has ever been recorded at the school. The interest is great, and those coming in are taking the matter philosophically and making the best of it, bound to complete the course. The campus was never busier than at present.

RICHMOND MEN PRIZE HILLS AS ENTERTAINERS

Dillard Hill, well known fisherman and hunter, residing at College Hill, assisted by Mrs. Hill, had a number of friends from Richmond at their home Monday night and a fish supper was a feature of the evening, aside from the entertainment upon the part of the host and hostess. Mr. Hill has affidavits proving that he was the man with the pole when the fish were caught, and they were properly prepared, all attest, when they reached the table.

County Clerk Jennings Maupin, who has a new set of molars, said today that the repast was "simply something great—that's all there is to tell about it."

The merry party consisted of the following: R. B. Terrill, Jacob Hackett, J. W. Maupin, Jephtha Chenault, Leslie Green and William Maupin.

In County Court

Paul Robinson, against whom there was a charge of having issued a worthless check, was dismissed in the county court, since he has subsequently paid amount represented by the check. This according to the law, made the transaction lawful, hence the dropping of the proceedings. The check is said to have been issued to a man named A. J. House and forgotten by Robinson at the time.

DEMPSEY CLEARED ON SLACKER CHARGE

(By Associated Press)
San Francisco, June 15—Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, was found not guilty on a selective draft evasion indictment by a jury in federal court here today.

Dempsey denied charges of non-support and cruelty made by his former wife, Mrs. Maxine Dempsey, in testimony given earlier in the trial.

Dempsey described himself as been the principal support of his family from the time he was 14 years old. He detailed experiences as a farm hand, miner, carpenter, and boxer, including verses, "when the boxing game was dull," and toward the end, his life as a budding champion.

Dempsey said he had supported his wife until she left him.

He denied that he broke his wife's jaw by a blow while they were living at a hotel here, as she had charged, "because she had not earned any money for him."

Dempsey said he never had struck his wife and that the jaw fracture was caused by a fall.

Dempsey described himself as having earned in the ring in 1917 about $4,000.

The next year a large part of his time was spent in appearances at patriotic benefits, out of which, he said, besides traveling expenses, he got "two wrist watches and a gold pencil."

Lieut. John F. Kennedy, of the battleship Mississippi, testified Dempsey had asked him to obtain his release from his exemption so he might enlist.

Dempsey, according to Kennedy, often remarked "he did not feel right to see men in uniform about him, and as long as his family was well taken care of he did not care what happened to him."

The remarks were made, according to the witness, at the Great Lakes Training Station, where Dempsey was boxing as a civilian.

Kennedy testified Dempsey, in 1918, asked him to have his exemption released, and later Dempsey telephoned twice from New Jersey to see if the release had been obtained. The release, Kennedy testified, came through, and Dempsey had started for Philadelphia to enlist, but the enlistment was stopped by the order of the Secretary of the Navy.

Before further action could be taken the armistice was signed.

EIGHT KILLED TODAY IN WRECK ON SANTA FE

La Junta, Col., June 15—Eight passengers were killed and fifty injured today near Rene, Col., today when an eastbound Santa Fe passenger train, the "California Limited," was wrecked. Relief trains have been dispatched to the scene.

RIVER VICTIM BURIED AT WINCHESTER TODAY

Winchester, Ky., June 15.—The funeral of John Trimble, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Trimble, who was drowned Saturday, was held at his residence on Lexington avenue by Elder J. H. MacNeill. Burial was in the Winchester cemetery. The Sunday School class of E. R. Tate, consisting of boys of ages from 10 to 12 years, had been taken for an outing and at noon when the rest of the children and Mr. Tate were leaving the river for their cars, where dinner had been spread on the Madison county side of the river, the Trimble boy waded into the water, sepped off a ledge of rock and was drowned before assistance could arrive.

Baton Rouge, La., June 15.—In the lower House of the state assembly today, 67 to 44 defeated the proposal to ratify the woman suffrage federal amendment, which was defeated in the Senate last week.

ADCOCK MURDER CASE PUZZLING

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., June 15—Mrs. Rosa Adcock, sister of Mrs. Grace Jeffries, and Father Nathan Sloan are in the county jail today, and all issued denials of participation in the alleged murder of James Adcock, husband of Rosa. Mrs. Adcock asserted her husband was suffering while a soldier in France, which unbalanced his mind, and led him to shoot himself. Mrs. Jeffries asserts she rushed to the room a moment after Adcock had shot himself. Nolan declared he did not know Adcock was wounded, but thought James had shot Rosa, and he, attacked him. The trio was presented in police court today. An attorney announced he would ask for bail. The case presents a number of curious angles.

KIDNAPPER DEMANDS $12,000 FOR CHILD

Norristown, Pa., June 15.—"I have received a letter from a man signing himself 'The Crank,' demanding $12,000, which I believe to be authentic. I am willing to negotiate with him personally," Georg H. Coughlin, father of the missing 13-months-old Blakely Coughlin, said last night.

Mr. Coughlin would not discuss the matter beyond requesting that the statement be published in its exact form.

That Mr. Coughlin is willing to negotiate personally and privately with the abductors of his baby indicates that someone has come forth with the proof requested by the family while the deluge of letters was arriving at the home.

Mr. Coughlin indicates he will take a chance on "the crank" on his own terms, and evidences an intention to carry out a bargain, even if it costs him $12,000 to do it.

The reticence of the father gives rise to the belief that he has decided he is on the right track. He was asked numerous questions and gave the same reply: "My lips are sealed; I merely ask that you publish this statement."

BUBONIC PLAGUE APPEARS IN FLORIDA

Pensacola, Fla., June 15.—Inoculation of a guinea pig with serum taken from Peter Glardina, suspected victim of bubonic plague, who died here, was followed by the death of the animal, state laboratory experts announced. This was said to strengthen the opinion that at least one genuine case of the dread disease had been established here.

Dr. C. L. Williams, of the federal public health service's bubonic plague commission in New Orleans, is to assist in the campaign to prevent a spread of the disease.

Mexico City, June 15.—A victim of suspected bubonic plague died at Tampico, according to dispatches received from that city by the Mexico City newspapers. The messages state the physicians who examined the patient reported it to be their belief that the case was of the real bubonic type, while the correspondent of the Democrita says a bacteriological examination of the patient's blood showed the existence of this disease.

YOUTHS IN STORE ROBBERY

Georgetown, Ky., June 15.—Youths who gave the names of Julian Taylor, 20 years old, and Dudley Hambric, 18 years old, Cincinnati, were arrested Monday charged with having broken into the general store of Dickerson at Rogers Gap, and stolen two pairs of shoes, $18 in cash and several dollars' worth of stamps from the postoffice in the same storehouse. The boys on going to the adjoining station at Hinton to get something to eat, were placed under arrest, it is alleged.

Frankfort, Ky., June 15.—Two men from the Animal Husbandry department Washington, D. C., have been assigned to Kentucky to help combat tuberculosis in cattle. They are Dr. M. R. Jolly and Dr. M. Lohr, who have had headquarters in Cleveland, Ohio.

TOO SPICY FOR PRISONERS

Speaking of prison fare, William Burgess, keeper of the Madison county jail, stated today that the only complaint coming from the prisoners was of a surprising nature. It is brought about through "too much seasoning," according to one of the prisoners, who stated that there was no "kick" to the quality or quantity.

COAL DEMAND LOW; SO IS THE SUPPLY

Richmond Dealers Report Consumers Are Taking Chances on a Break in Prices

There has been a weakening in prices of Western Kentucky coal during the past week, according to some of the leading local coal men, but at the same time prices have gone higher in the Eastern Kentucky gas coal fields, due to heavy demand and a shortage of supplies.

However, it is believed that prices are in line for a slump shortly, in view of the fact that the car supply is much better.

For the past few weeks prices on prepared or domestic sizes have been so steep that retailers have not been stocking, there being very little consumer demand. The result has been that there has been practically no lump coal produced at the mines, it being said that the demand has been largely for steam coal, gas and by-product coal, where run of mine is mostly desired. Western Kentucky lump coal struck $5.50 a ton last week, but has eased up a bit, and can be had at the mines at around $5 and $5.25, according to a Western Kentucky operator.

A local dealer stated today that the demand was very light and so was the supply. However, many are taking a sporting chance on the fluctuating price.

WHO WANTS A LITTLE STREET RAILWAY FREE?

Who wants a street railway line with car, equipment and plenty of "juice," all ready to operate, as a present, absolutely free to the recipient?

The Kentucky Traction and Terminal company has at Winchester a complete street car line which it is reported being desirous of giving away and which it has generously proposed to make that city a present of if it will kindly take it off the company's hands and mother it. No strings are to the offer—the city, if it chooses, may bring the waif up or a bottle, use pargoric to put it to sleep, or spank it, which ever is the most convenient and noiseless method of treatment.

KEEPING THE BOYS ON THE FARM THESE CRITICAL DAYS

One of the farmer's most difficult problems has been the keeping of the boy on the farm. It seems to be human nature that as soon as a boy at the young manhood period, the city appeals very strongly to him. All the while he is attending country school he hears all sorts of stories about the good times folks are having in the city. During the summer vacation period, his city cousins come out to spend a few days on the farm and tell him all about the amusements going on back home and the convenience he has in the city of which the farm lad is deprived. All these rumors tend to excite the curiosity of the country lad and by the time he reaches about twenty years of age he has decided to desert the farm, go to the city, enjoy life and, above all, make lots of money in a short time.

Up to this time he has spent all his life on the farm. He has learned the cultivation of soil, the rotation of crops and the million and one other things necessary to the successful operation of the farm. His value to the farmer cannot be estimated and oftentimes should the lad depart for the city, it is necessary for the farmer to try and replace him by some fellow who is inexperienced, which results in a loss of time, production and money. Quite often such action is a detriment to the young man as well as the farmer. For when he gets to the city he finds that things are not just as he had pictured them. He is required to start in on a job at the bottom and oftentimes before he has worked his way up to a responsible position, he becomes discouraged and settles down to a very ordinary life of meager means without the possibilities of the independent life which were afforded him had he remained on the farm.

Now the thing which has in most cases taken the farm boy to the city is the promise of more pleasure, more comfort and more convenience in his living condition as well as the promise of more pay and better advancement. Where conveniences of electric light and power, of running water, a modern bathroom and labor saving devices of all kinds have been installed on the farm it has been found that the boys are much more content to stay and carry on the work for which their early training has fitted them. A great many farmers, heads of families in which there are several boys, have realized this and given their farms these modern conveniences. They have been repaid by having their boys stay with them instead of going to the city.

Political Announcements: The Daily Register is authorized to publish the following candidates to appear on the ballot of the Democratic Party.

Care For Children's Teeth: A recent investigation by the department of the health bureau of the New York City public schools, showed that 97 per cent of the children had seriously defective teeth, and that a vast amount of decay was to be found in the first permanent teeth of the children six years of age.

There is little need to dwell on the relation of the teeth to the general health. That matter has had much publicity, though not too much. But there are certain aspects of the case which need frequent repetition, as the above figures show. If a child is to have good teeth, care must be given ever before the teeth appear at all, and unceasingly thereafter, from the time the first tooth shows until kindly old age permits the purchase of the indestructible variety. The daily use of the tooth brush is not sufficient to insure that the teeth will keep in good condition. Regular trips to the dentist are essential as well, in order that any defects known or unsuspected, may be promptly remedied. Prevention is the golden rule when dental difficulties are under consideration.

Nothing is more ruinous to personal appearance than faulty teeth, nothing more menacing to health than undetected or neglected dental troubles. Efficient care in childhood will save pain, humiliation and dollars later.

HENRY B. WATHALL STARS "LONG ARM OF MANNISTER"

Henry B. Wathall is the star in "The Long Arm of Mannister," here Tuesday. His portrayal of George Mannister is the most superb piece of acting ever done by this peer of dramatic actors.

He is also the star of such past hits as "The Birth of a Nation," "The Boomerang," "False Faces," "Avenging Conscience," "Beulah," etc., etc.

In "The Long Arm of Mannister," Henry B. Wathall was directed by Bertram Bracken, who has also directed such productions as "The Eternal Sappho," "East Lynne," "Conscience," "Comrade John," "Sporting Blood" and the "Boomerang."

Helene Chadwick, playing a prominent role in "The Long Arm of Mannister," is one of the foremost of screen celebrities. Her vivid interpretation of the woman of mystery, vampire and plaything of men is unsurpassed. The gown creations worn by her are daring in the extreme and serve to enhance the natural beauty of her face and figure.

Miss Chadwick has appeared in many notable productions some of which include "Maahka," "A Very Good Young Man," "Go-Gettem," "Darringer," etc.

Kentucky. Those fortunate enough to have enjoyed the hospitality of the Misses DeJarnette Monday, when they entertained the Boonesboro chapter of the D. A. R., felt that truly now if ever come perfect days.
The drive down was lovely and nothing could have been more charming than the quaint old house, hidden on the hilltop in a perfect wilderness of trees and flowers. The furniture and everything about the place gave one a little thrill of expectancy that a real daughter of the Revolution might come tripping through the doorway and courtesy to the assembled company. Had this been true, how shocked the gentle creature
would have been at the talk and discussions that followed.

In the absence of the chaplain,
Mrs. Pattie, Mrs. Caperton, the regent, opened the meeting. This being

Flag Day, the salute to the flag, or,
as some say, the American's creed,
was recited, and union then followed the Lord's prayer. Interesting minutes of the last meeting were read and it was reported that the chapter would bring Miss Mary Scrougham, of Fayette county, here to give an address to the women of Madison county on "How to Vote,"
not who to vote for, but just to familiarize them with the etiquette of the polls, as it were. Mrs. Zaring's paper on the Shantung question was splendidly prepared and concise and to the point and cleared this much discussed question of much if its shell and presented the very kernel
of it to the interested listeners. Mrs.
George Phelps gave a most characteristic account of her trip west, telling of having attended more than one court in which a woman sat as judge, and also spoke of seeing numbers of women in the jury box and of her joy over the thought that she, too, might soon occupy one of the "seats of the mighty." "It was at this point, I'm sure, the quaint old clock that I saw
'held up its hands before its face.'"

Mrs. Sullivan's magazine review was most interesting, she making special mention of the entertainments of the White House and their different styles from Washington to the present day.

After refreshments the chapter adjourning until September 13, when they meet with Mrs. T. D. Chenault, the ceremony and the home was decorated throughout with pink and white roses and carnations, candles if the same shade being used in the dining room. Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present.—Lexington Leader.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadersville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills.
They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed
I was more constipated than before.
I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not had to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal,
no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative
one can use.
Theodore's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise
of thousands of people who have used it.

BLUEGRASS HARVEST REACHING ITS HEIGHT

Famous Kentucky Product Being Sought in Hawaiian Islands,
Canada, and Elsewhere

Some of the bluegrass seed that assists in making Kentucky famous is being gathered and the season will be at its height within a few days, according to the heavy producers. The quality and quantity this year in this part of the state are said to be normal. A few years ago there was a decided decrease, with a rise in the production later, and the normal stage was only reached when the prices began to soar. The demand at the present time is out of the ordinary, and the prediction is made that another year there will be a banner production. Much of the territory heretofore given to raising special seed has been turned over to other purposes and this, it is believed, will revert, owing to the big demand and the prevailing prices.

Many loads are arriving in the city where the curing and final stripping will be done. The demand for grass produced in Kentucky is far-reaching. One dealer stated that some time ago he sent a sample of the seed to the Hawaiian Islands, where it is now being grown. It is expected that when the grass matures and its beauty and other qualities are recognized, there will be a big demand for it from the far away islands. It is believed generally that the Kentucky bluegrass will flourish on the island, owing to the semi-tropical climate. Canada is also applying the seed, and considerable demand from the west is in evidence, also.

BETTER PRICE ON RECORDS

In the advertisement of Muncy Brothers last week, in which he was offering to close out all Columbia and Pathe records at a bargain price, the reduction was not printed in the advertisement as really as low as he was offering. The price quoted on all records was given at 85 cents, when it is possible to buy them at his store for 75 cents. This includes some of the latest releases, and some of the most popular numbers of the day. They are selling fast and you'll have to come early to take advantage of this price.

Booze Is Not a Good Cure

Best Remedy for Stomach Trouble. "I am pleased to have the opportunity to say a good word for Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Mamie Bertel, of Moberly, Mo. I have taken them off and on for two or three years and they always relieve indigestion, tone up the liver and make me feel fine."

Booze Is Not a Good Cure

(From the Ames, Iowa, Intelligence) When a man comes to you all doubled up with pain and declares he will die in your presence unless you procure him a drink of whisky, send him to a doctor or else give him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is a mistaken notion among a whole lot of people that booze is the best remedy for colic and stomach ache.

CRUCIFIED BUT ITALIAN RECOVERS

(By Associated Press)

Mexico City, June 15.—Dr. Jose di Gabriele, the Italian religious zealot who was crucified by the Indian inhabitants of Tequisistlan, Oaxaca, on last Good Friday, arrived recently in Mexico City, on route to his home in Pachuca, apparently little the worse physically, but still harboring his beliefs.

Di Gabriele appeared in Oaxaca early in Lent, proclaiming himself to be the Savior and so worked on the superstitious and ignorant Indians that they crucified him, using railway spikes to nail him to a rude cross. He was taken down the next day and survived his ordeal, being viewed by thousands on Easter.

News of the crucifixion reached the capital of the state, Tehuantepec, and the governor ordered Di Gabriele brought there. A great procession followed the cart in which he was transported. Later the mayor of Tequisistlan, who acted as the Roman centurion, and four other principal figures in the crucifixion were arrested.

AMERICAN CHANCE TO BUILD BRIDGES

(By Associated Press)

Constantza, Rumania, June 15.—Owing to the general destruction of bridges during the war, there is an exceptional opportunity in Rumania for American bridge builders. A bridge over the Danube to connect Rumania with Serbia is being considered by the Russian government. There are 18 important bridges in other parts of Rumania awaiting construction.

In addition, the great bridge over the Danube at Cernavoda, in many respects the greatest structure in Europe, must be reconstructed. This bridge, known as the King Carol Bridge, is 1,260 feet long and 114 feet above high water.

KENTUCKY IN NEED OF MORE SILOS

Kentucky needs more silos in order to feed more live stock easier and cheaper. Particularly, this year when the farmer should consider how the late planted corn crop will be used.

If the frosts come late in the fall the corn will be allowed to mature all right, but if the growing season is a short one the man with the silo is in the safest position.

At present the silos in the state would take care of only a very small portion of the corn crop and if the average farm income from Kentucky is considered with the farm income from states having a greater number of silos, the size of the income of the latter is greatest. A number of new silos are appearing in Madison county.

The forty-hour devotional services at the St. Paul Catholic church will close on Tuesday evening. The service, which comprises prayer service of a special nature, is observed annually.

The annual Flag Day observance by the members of Richmond lodge of Elks took place Monday night in their elegant home, Main and Second streets, for the first time, the event being greatly enjoyed by a large number. Many of the members residing out of the city were present, and an interesting program was the order of the evening. An address by Prof. J. H. The following program was rendered:

History of the Flag
On June 14, 1777, Congress entered on its journal an official endorsement of the Stars and Stripes, in a resolution worded as follows:
"Resolved, that the flag of the United States be 13 stripes alternate red and white, that the Union be 13 stars white in a blue field representing a new constellation."

The ensign of the United States of America remained the same, as fixed by resolution of June 14, 1777, until 1795. By this time Vermont and Kentucky had been admitted into the Union, and on January 13, 1794, Congress passed the following act:

"That from and after the first day of May, 1795, the flag of the United States be fifteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be fifteen stars, white in a blue field."

The flag thus established remained in use until 1818. During this period occurred the war with Great Britain, commonly called the War of 1812. It was during this war that "The Star Spangled Banner" was written by Francis Scott Key.

In 1818 a further change was made in the United States flag. By this time five additional states had been admitted, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Indiana and Mississippi.

The act passed April 4, 1818, provides, first,
"That from and after the 4th day of July next, the flag of the United States be thirteen horizontal stripes, alternate red and white; that the union have twenty stars, white in a blue field."

"Second, that on the admission of every new state into the union, one star be added to the union of the flag, and such addition shall take effect on the fourth of July next succeeding such admission."

KENTUCKY HORSES ARE BEING SHIPPED TO CUBA

Key West, Fla., June 15.—J. T. Campbell & Company, of Campbellsburg, Ky., shipped through this city to parties in Cuba last week a car load of fine horses and mules. The consignment was moved in an Armes Palace Horse Car by rail route through Florida.

J. T. Campbell, who accompanied the shipment, has made four trips to Cuba with stock since January 1, 1920. During April and May the firm of which Mr. Campbell is a member shipped several thousand hogs to packing houses in Cuba.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

The Chandler "Stands Up"

It endures. There are many old 1913 Chandlers on the road to-day, doing good service, and thousands of the 1914's and 1915's. Their owners write us and tell us so.

The Chandler endures because it is built to endure. Dealers who have sold other popular cars say, "It costs ever-so-much less to keep a Chandler right."

The Chandler chassis, justly famous for its marvelous motor, is the development of seven years of constant application of the skill of Chandler engineers. And to-day it approximates perfection.

Six beautiful styles of body are mounted on the standard chassis, offering a wide choice from which to select.

are really in want, it is claimed, and it is with the intention of placing every soldier on his feet, so to speak, that the work of the movement is being urged so strongly. With the work of the Red Cross, the various other modes of ferreting out this big list of soldiers, it was believed that all could be communicated with, but after the finishing of the work, at Louisville alone, it was learned that more than 3,500 had failed to respond. The only requisite is to provide yourself with your discharge and report to the nearest branch of the service and you will receive immediate attention and aid in any manner needed. This is what the government is desirous of doing; help every man that needs it, but the man has first to be found. One of the features of the work making the great shade on the drawback is the pride of the average American soldier, although it is not so characteristic of soldiers of other lands. There are thousands who are aware of the fact that they would be assisted by the government if they sought the aid, but are prevented by their pride. This is said to be a vital mistake. While this element perhaps does not need aid at this time, it is now that they should communicate with the government and equip and insure themselves against possible affliction accruing later as a result of their army service.

The Richmond branch will arrange to hold regular meetings and the work will be taken up and followed closely upon the lines laid down by the government. The next meeting, together with the arrangements for future meetings and work will be arranged for and announced within a short time.

MRS. THOMAS' WORD TO WOMEN

Tells of the Great Good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her.

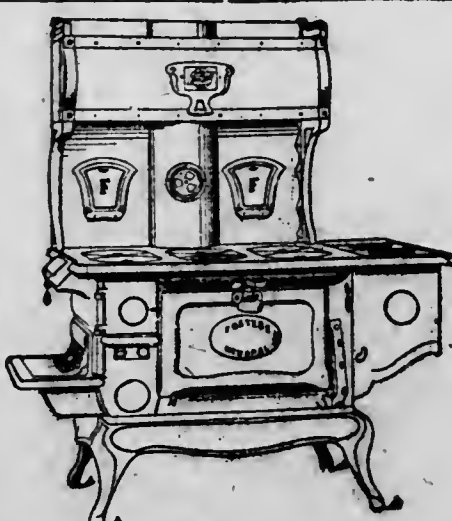

Morrice, Mich.—"About a year after my second baby was born I suffered with dizziness every morning so that I could hardly get around. I had heard from other women about your medicine and had read letters about it so my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I took according to directions and in a short time I was entirely relieved. I also took the Vegetable Compound before my last baby came and am thankful to say that it relieved my sufferings very much and I shall never be without it at such times. I have told others of its great worth and shall keep on telling it."—Mrs. E. D. Thomas, Box 184, Morrice, Mich.

Women should not continue to suffer lay in an day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WHEAT IS LIGHT; OTHER CROPS GOOD

State Report on Condition of Grain in Kentucky Shows Present Standing

With numerous reports of very short acreage, heavy abandonment, thin stand and damage by the Hessian fly, Kentucky's wheat crop now promises 5,825,000 bushels, compared to a prospect in early May for 6,143,000 bushels, according to the June crop report issued jointly at Frankfort and Louisville by Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna and H. F. Bryant, Kentucky field agent of the U. S. Bureau of Crop Estimates. Last year the final yield in Kentucky turned out 12,029,000 bushels, while the 5-year average, 1914-18, inclusive, was 10,316,000 bushels. The greatest out in acreage and the heaviest damage apparently occurred in Western and Southern Kentucky.

Oats are doing fine on a good acreage, except where too badly drowned out in a few places. The condition is 92 per cent of normal and the acreage about 431,000, indicating a production of about 10,706,000 bushels, compared to 9,900,000 bushels last year.

Rye shows a condition of 83 per cent of normal. With about 53,000 acres in the state to be harvested for grain this indicates a production of approximately 629,000 bushels, compared to 744,000 bushels last year.

Barley acreage in Kentucky this year is about 12 per cent less than in 1919, due chiefly to increased barley tobacco acreage. Practically all the barley in Kentucky is grown in the blue grass counties. Condition of barley is 90 per cent of normal, indicating a production of about 95,000 bushels.

Most meadows have made good growth, though some sections are poor or very weedy, and some of the first cutting of alfalfa was damaged by rain. Condition of clover is 89 per cent, with the acreage about 12 per cent less than in 1919, due chiefly to high prices of seed and to winter-killing. Alfalfa condition is 90 per cent, due chiefly to freezing out. The acreage is about 90 per cent less than in 1919.

Apple prospects are good in most sections, the average being about 71 per cent of a crop. Peaches are about 78 per cent of a crop, while pears are about 63 per cent.

Pasture in most sections averages fair. All work and crops are very late. Much plowing, corn planting, and tobacco setting still being done. Truck crops are growing well now, but melons were severely checked by cold, wet weather in May. Blackberries promise a bumper crop practically all over the state.

The first report on tobacco will be made early in July.

THE HELPING HAND TO ALL SOLDIERS

A permanent Service and Information Branch of the War Department was perfected at an enthusiastic meeting held Saturday night at the court house, when officers were selected who will be at the head of the work in Richmond, which city was chosen as one of the important centers from which the effects of the operations will emanate. The willingness with which the representatives of various organizations, together with professional men of the city, started in with the rather impromptu meeting which terminated in the perfection of the branch forming the nucleus of the work here respects for the future and welfare of hundreds of soldiers who will be given assistance.

The officers are as follows: R. E. Turley, permanent chairman; D. W. Kennedy, vice chairman; Miss Mary Collins, secretary.

The meeting, called Saturday afternoon and announced for Saturday night, resulted in a liberal attendance, either all of the extensive list of organizations called upon responding by direct membership or sending representatives. The meeting was presided over by Mayor L. P. Evans. Captain Joseph L. Bachus, at the head of the work in this section, was called upon to explain the nature of the work to be taken up, which he did satisfactorily, also detailing a manner, in the way of a suggestion as to how to proceed with it. He was followed by a number present who dwelt upon the various phases of the work for some time after which the officers for the organization were chosen. There were no declinations all appearing enthusiastic and willing to take a hand and do what they could.

A most fitting and creditable illustration of the interest taken here in the work came through a communication with Miss Anne Collins, who was unable to be present, but who voluntarily offered her services as secretary of the organization, informing the interested ones that she would officiate in this capacity, a most important one, considering the work to be done, and her gracious services were accepted.

The object of the organization of the branch is to effect the rehabilitation of the entire membership of the United States army, including every man who was in service during the late war; to co-operate with them, and to assist them in the way of furnishing medicine, hospital of medical aid in any manner, and also to furnish remuneration, of necessary. It is estimated that although there have been repeated attempts to reach every man who has been in the service, over 300,000 who have legitimate claims against the government have not been heard from. It is with the idea of communicating with each and every one of these that this service is being formed. Uncle Sam wants to do everything he can for the men who were with the colors, "but he has to find many of them yet in order to do so," was one of the expressive statements of Captain Bachus in stating the object of the organization. "Some men really have claims for extra train fare, board and personal affairs of that kind," he said. Many records and discharges have been lost. The rush to get the men home after the armistice was signed resulted in many changes that caused some men to go here, others there, and many have not been heard from. It is known that there are more than 6,000 soldiers with whom the government has not been able to effect communication thus far, although they are known to have arrived home safely; they have just "drifted," the captain said, and nothing has been heard of them as yet. Many need medical attention. Some are tubercular; others

CAPITAL STOCK

Farmer's Store Outgrows Original Capitalization

Because of the increase in the volume of its business and because of the demands upon its stock of goods, the Union Supply Company, Irvine street has found it necessary to double its capitalization in order to meet the desires of its customers.

At a regularly called meeting of the stockholders, May 22, the capital stock was increased from five to ten thousand dollars, a step found necessary because of a demand by prospective shareholders who desire to share in the rebate feature of this unique institution. For seven years the shareholders have been paid six per cent interest on stock and an equal division of the balance of the profits, according to the volume of trade done with the store, regardless of the number of shares held. As a result of this feature many holders of one share of stock only have been paid six per cent on stock and rebates amounting to $50.00 up to $156.25.

Under the amended articles of incorporation, just filed in the county clerk's office, one half of these accumulated profits, after payment of six per cent interest on stock, is to be paid to shareholders in proportion to the amount of trade done by them
regardless of number of shares held and the remaining half set aside as a reserve or sinking fund
to be used only for the purpose of liquidating outstanding indebtedness and to meet current obligations incident to the running of the business until such time as all are fully paid, then this surplus profit shall be at the disposal of a majority of the shareholders present at any legal meeting.

So far stock issued by the company amounts to six thousand dollars and it is expected that the full ten thousand dollars will be gobbled up within a month or two. Just what extensions and additions will be made to this farmers' institution has not yet been decided upon, but expansion will naturally follow.

The holding of shares is limited to fifty and all shareholders have an equal voice at its meetings and elections regardless of number of shares held. It is truly a democratic institution where every man has an equal voice in the conduct of its affairs. The annual election of officers is held on the first Saturday in July.

CATTLE MEN TO ATTEND

BRADSHAW'S BIG SALE

Several prominent cattle men
from this section have signified their intention of attending the big Aberdeen-Angus cattle sale
which is to be held by Bradshaw Bros., of Garrard and Boyle counties, which will be held at their new farm near Danville
Wednesday, the 16th.

They have dreams of making the new farm one of the most historic in the commonwealth. The cattle which they sell this time
are strong in blood of Plowman, which recently sold in the Kershaw sale for the record price of the breed, $40,000. Never has there been such a highly bred offering of Aberdeen-Angus in Kentucky. There is scarcely an animal listed that is not fit to add strength and prestige to any herd in the land. The bulls are suitable to head the best of herds and should make good wherever they go. The Bradshaws have been constructive breeders. Every breeder in Kentucky should attend the sale and lend his support. Send for catalogs.

Various records were broken in the series of Aberdeen-Angus sales held in Iowa last week. The circuit opened at the Glyn Mawr Farm of Julius Tudor and Son at Iowa City, on May 25th, where 58 head averaged $2,226. Sixty-seven females averaged $2,051,
and the yearling bull Egret, fell to the bid of R. W. Plummer, of Marshalltown, Ia., at $14,000. The top price for a female was $7,000, bid by Meade and Wegand, of Green, Iowa, for the four-year-old Blackcap of Glyn Mawr 4th.
On May 26th, W. H. Cooper sold 42 females at Hedrick at an average of $3,209. The top was $10,000, bid by J. P. Donohue, of Holtbrook, Iowa, for Elluna E., a five-year-old.

On May 27th P. J. Donohue's
sale at Holtbrook, 51 head averaged $5,315. The top bid was $15,000, which took Blackcap
Lassie for D. J. Leeney, Oxford,
Ia. Mr. Leeney also got Pine Park Elgon, a four-year-old bull, at $6,000. The 50 females averaged $5,302.

Miss Nora Baldwin's sale at Keswick on May 28th, resulted in an average of $610 for 40 females.
The top price was $5,800, bid by John Fitch, of Lake City, Ia., for the three-year-old Blackcap
Progress and cow calf.

The beautifully conditioned
Rosegrit offering of Carl A.
Rosenfeld at Kelley, on May 29, obtained an average of $1,505 for 54 head. The top price was $7,200
the successful bid of Anderson Bros., of Tyler, Minn., for the three-year-old cow Blackcap Gwynn. Three bulls averaged $1,417 and 51 females $1,500.
